

Algeria

All the history of algeria

History

- Soccer is Algeria's favorite sport
- Tell atlas is about 1,300 – 4,300 feet long
- The daytime temperature is about 120°
- Only a few Algerians live in Sahara. Most of the Algerians live in oases.
- The government has pourn so much money yet they still don't have enough money to get a job.

Climate facts

- Most of the Algerians speak French.
- Only about five percent of the Algerians speak dialects.
- Since Algeria gained its independence from French in 1962 the government tried to get rid of french culterial influences.
- Algerians mostly lived in large family groups
- Most of men who lived in Algeria worked in factories

Why it's cool that fjh has different countries

- Because it's more fair to people who have different realigions
- Because you can get to know the world more.
- Because you can learn about different countries.

Climate

- Almost 99 percent of Algerians are Muslims.
- Only a little amount of Algerians gone to high school.
- A lot of the Algerians works of art had reflected the influences of Islam.
- There are three major land regions in Algeria.
 - 1. The tell
 - 2. The high plateaus
 - 3. The Sahara
- The Algerians sea temperature level is almost and average of 77° f

5 things I learned about Algeria that I thought were cool

- About 90% of children attend elementary school
- Algerians economy is mostly controlled by the state
- There are barely any mining employs in Algeria
- Algeria produces a lot of gas petroleum chiefly from the fields in the northern angle of the Sahara region
- There are about 30% of Algerians who for the economic production

