

England

Jagger Medley

Where is your country?

- England takes up just over half of the UK
- England is mostly made up of lowland terrain but it does have upland terrain at some parts
- The Lake District, the Pennines, the North York Moors, Exmoor, and Dartmoor are all in the upland areas of England
- The tallest mountain in England is Scafell Pike which is in the Cumbrian Mountains. It is 978 meters tall
- The longest river in England is River Thames. This River is 215 miles long(346 kilometers)

What are some interesting facts about its history?

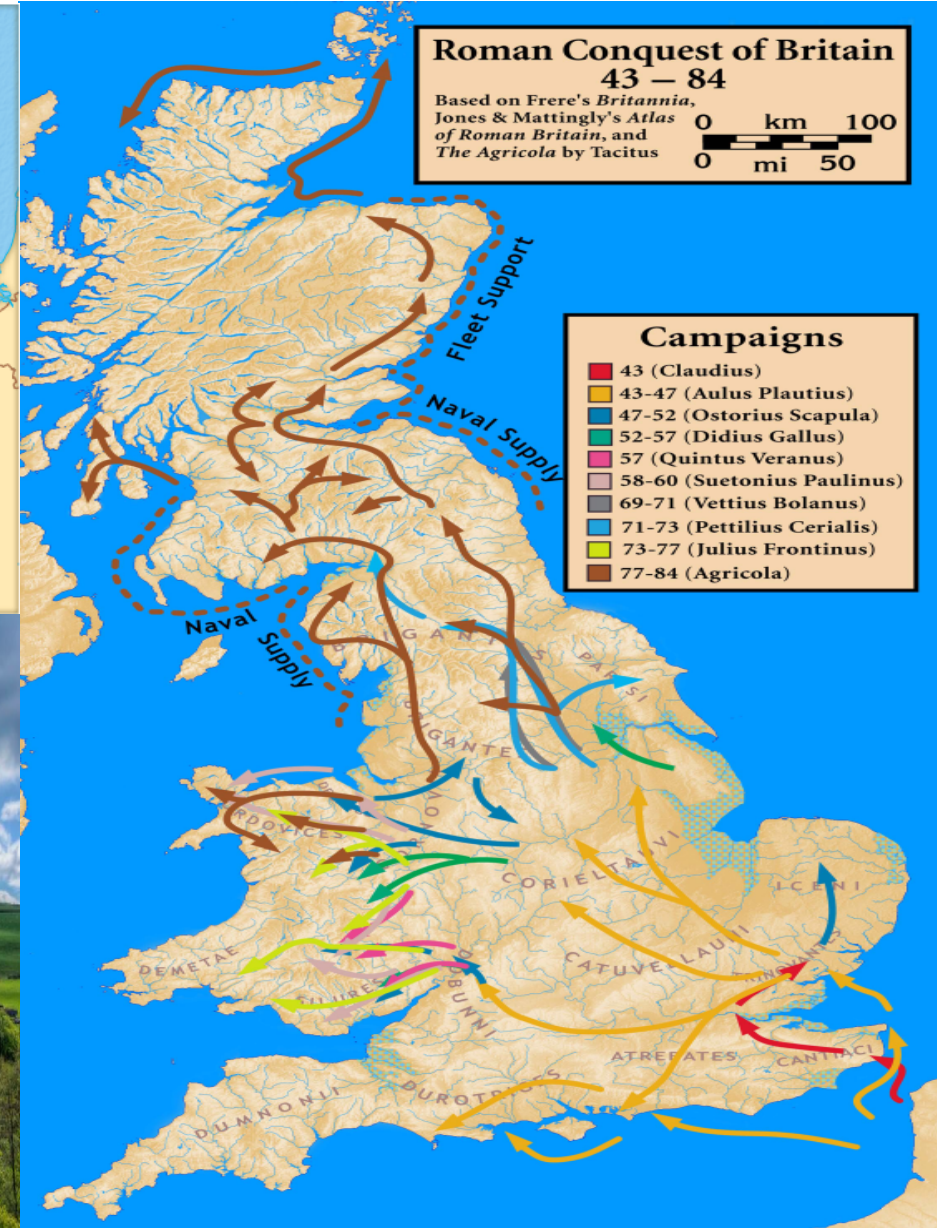

The New England hurricane hit England in 1938

The English civil war occurred in 1645

England joined the United Kingdom in 1707

Until the mid-1800's, most people in England lived in the countryside

In 55 b.c, Julius Ceaser sailed across the English Channel to explore England. One year later he led an army to invade it

What are some interesting facts about its culture?

- About 95% of people live in urban areas
- Popular foods in England are roast chicken, steak and kidney pie, Shepard's pie, and sausage and mash
- England's most popular organized sport is soccer, which they call football
- Cricket has been played in England since the 1300's
- People in England can be of any religion

What do you like best about this country?

- Lots of places to swim
- The food
- The scenery
- The cities
- The many things you can see or do in England

How does Fishers Junior High benefit from having families from this country as a part of our school and community?

- It benefits because we then have people at our school who can teach us how life is lived where they're from and tell us about life there, the food, traditions, and lots more things about where they're from

Bibliography

Foundation, Wikimedia. "Geography of England." Wikipedia, Wikimedia Foundation, 17 Feb. 2021, en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Geography_of_England.

WBO Student, 24 Feb. 2021, www.worldbookonline.com/student-new/.