

MEXICO

Mexico

Ellie Snider Period 4

Spanish:

Spanish:

Where is your country?

- Where- Mexico is Southern of North America, and is the third largest country.
- Mexico has one of the largest rivers in North America which is Rio grande.
- Highly elevated mountain , and plateaus surround Mexico.
- Mexico has tropical forest, valleys ,and deserts.
- Mexico home to many active volcanoes.
- Mexico is Cooper Canyon (top photo) is very deep in big. It is a group of canyons get which formed by six rivers, and Mexico highest waterfall.

What are some interesting facts about its history?

- In the nineteenth century, armed force official Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna (top photo) held a burial service for his cut off leg.
- In Mexico, battling craftsman can pay charges with their work of art.
- The Aztecs forfeited individuals to different divine beings.
- Mexico is rich in mineral.
- The economy was based mainly on agriculture and mining.

What are some interesting facts about its culture?

- Mexican culture is a wonderful mix of the country's indigenous roots and its set of experiences of European triumph and colonization.
- Mexico food culture isn't just heavenly, with every area offering an abundance of delicious dishes and intriguing flavor profiles that are cherished around the planet.
- Most of Mexicans are mestizos.
- Mexican family units have five or six individuals all things considered. It is regular for a few ages to live respectively.
- Mexico's way of life is rich, vivid and energetic, affected by its antiquated civilizations like the Aztec and Maya just as European colonization. It is one of a kind and likely quite possibly the most entrancing societies on the planet. The conventions and customs of the Mexican public are fluctuated and assorted.

What do you like best about this country?

- What's the flag mean?The banner is shows three groups in green, white and red. The insignia on the white ground shows a falcon remaining on a desert flora with a snake in the bill. What do the tones in the banner represent? The shades of the Mexican banner represent autonomy, solidarity and religion.
- Animal: Mexico is perhaps the most bio-different nations on earth. So many different beautiful for there animals for being so fun to look at and experience. In Mexico, there are panthers, jaguars and enormous iguanas. Whales, manta beams and manatees are normal in the seas and can once in a while by spotted of the Yucatan coast. In the wildernesses of southern Mexico, one can experience different kinds of reptiles, monkeys and beautiful feathered creatures, like parrots.
- Mexican food: Have had many of this Delicious stuff and delightful which is so memorable good. Mexican food is mainstream since it's brimming with flavor. The Mexican dishes incorporate solid and new fixings like avocados, beans, chiles, tomatoes and different vegetables, and various kinds of meat like hamburger, chicken, pork, and fish even bunny, sheep, among others utilized in tacos, tamales or soup. Which all of these are Brimming as we know when actually get a taste of these favorites.
- Language : The vast majority in Mexico communicate in Spanish. Mexico is the country with the most Spanish speakers on the planet. A larger number of individuals communicate in Spanish here than in Spain, in light of the fact that a lot more individuals live in Mexico and the nation is additionally multiple occasions greater. The speaking is really cool of what others communicate through.
- Music:Mexicans are known as well disposed and inviting outsiders, they are truly partial to kids. Mariachi are the mainstream artists who play society music. They principally use string instruments, yet additionally trumpets are once in a while played. The gatherings are frequently welcome to play at birthday celebrations, weddings and other family festivities. Some of the music which is enjoyable is used and I learn the different types of singing and what they are expressing through singing those songs.

How does Fishers Junior High benefit from having families from this country as a part of our school and community?

- This will benefit all student who are familiar with Mexico. Maybe born , grew up , lived . Whatever it means to them some of will appreciate what they have to experience there, and how they would relate. Most people that are different usually don't think about fitting in or being scared of what others would think. But at Fishers Junior High, we want everyone to feel welcome; and safe. If I would come in experiencing this I might feel overwhelmed. But on the other side I would be nice and kind to the new student. Studies show that students need to feel safe in a learning environment so they can be successful. With many diverse teacher and people who can help themselves relate. Whom can you can come to for advice, and needs. Are school wants to bridge cultural differences and learn what you have to bring.

Bibliography:

1. Graff, Regina. "Mexico Facts for Kids: Mexico Attractions: Food: People: Geography." For Kids | Mexico Attractions | Food | People | Geography, Regina Graff, 23 Feb. 2010, www.kids-world-travel-guide.com/mexico-facts.html.

2. Palerm, Angle. "Drainage." Encyclopædia Britannica, Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc., 26 July 1991, www.britannica.com/place/Mexico/Drainage.

- 3. "5 Interesting Culture Facts You Didn't Know About Mexico: Blog." Villa La Estancia Beach Resort & Spa Riviera Nayarit, 21 Feb. 2021, rivieranayarit.villalaestancia.com/blog/destination/5-interesting-facts-about-the-culture-and-traditions-of-mexico.

4. "5.2 Mexico." World Regional Geography, University of Minnesota Libraries Publishing Edition, 2016. This Edition Adapted from a Work Originally Produced in 2012 by a Publisher Who Has Requested That It Not Receive Attribution., 17 June 2016, open.lib.umn.edu/worldgeography/chapter/5-2-mexico/.

