

Mexico

Fact

- Mexico is the 13th largest country in the world.
- Mexico became an official country on September 16th, 1890.
- Mexico joined the allied forces in 1942 waging war on Germany and Japan
- Mexico's hero poncha villa is assassinated.
- 1519 Hernan Cortez finds tenochtitlan and later Montezuma II is killed.
- A Mexican engineer invented colored TV
- An ancient Mayan artifact in Mexico depicts an astronaut
- The Aztecs from Mexico invented chocolate.
- The story behind the Mexican flag is a legend that depicts the Aztecs in 1323 who saw an eagle with a snake in its claws.
- Mexico is home to the worlds smallest volcano
- Mexican children do not get presents on Christmas.

Facts 2

- Mexico is home to the worlds largest tamale
- Mexican hero Pancho villa hated beer and believed that it was the source of evil and the devil.
- Mexico was invaded by France one and they established their president there.
- Mexico is not as poor as in the movies, many cars and tall modern buildings are established there.
- Mexico owns the largest bullring ever
- Mexico sinks 10 inches every year
- Mexico started bull fighting as a way to show masculinity
- Mexico has a population of 129 million.

Paragraph

- What FJH can learn from Mexico is that it's a very diverse and colorful country also one of the LGBTQ accepting countries, it also has Catholicism which shows you to believe in god and pray. Mexico is about accepting and believing in Christ and having faith hoping for good.

Images of mexico

